Well, they responded regardless, after [redacted] made the intro - think some combo of us should meet with them anyway?

HI [redacted] and good to meet you Johnny

Many thanks for making the connection.
We'd be delighted to set up a call and share more of our work and our perspective on the business model of disinformation. We'd be very interested to hear more about how USAID is thinking about the challenge also.
Perhaps we can arrange a videocall in the next few weeks?
I am copying in Jo Jenks, another of our management team who will join the call from our side. And also Anna who can offer a range of suggested times for a video call. As some of the GDI team are Europe based we will propose a few options in US morning/European afternoon.

Looking forward to continuing the conversation best wishes and thanks again for making the introduction

Thanks [redacted] Moving you to bcc, and adding Vera Zakem, our new Senior Advisor for Tech and Democracy and overall lead on disinformation. Clare and Danny, it's great to e-meet you, and I'd love to chat. It's nothing urgent, but if we can find a time this week, let's do it; after that I'll be out for two weeks, then back in town for a while. My colleague Sofie (also cc'd) can help us find a time. Thank you!

hi! so more on this.. this is something we can explore down the road, but what the agency needs is a social media analytics capability to help with risk and programs. that's the priority, IMHO, and I have started bringing tech companies to us to showcase their stuff. :) Maybe write back, happy to continue talking.. if they want to send a more detailed concept later.. but i'd say we're at least 3 to 6 months off from something like this.. conceptually speaking.

Apologies. I misspoke slightly. I still don't see the immediate value added, but it strikes me this will need to be run not by us but by EE and the missions.

Good morning Johnny and Vera, and a belated happy new year to you both. As we're planning our work for 2023, I thought I would just follow up to see if USAID might still have interest in undertaking media market reviews in Moldova, Zambia, and Armenia?

We look forward to hearing from you.

Further to your recent call with Danny and Clare, I attach a short concept note setting out the work that GDI proposes to undertake in the three countries of interest to USAID: Moldova, Zambia, and Armenia. Hi Jo, Claire, and Danny,

Apologies for delay in getting back to you.

I think we will want to revisit this, and likely have a few additional ideas to explore. However, this will need to wait until after the Summit for Democracy. Right now, we are 100% focused on that. Can we circle back with you in April?

Thanks! Vera
