strategically. With that info, I can run the traps internally just to make sure I've checked that box, and gauge the interests of our in-region communications specialists, too!

Hi Chelsea,

Just circling back on this, let us know of some times that may work.

Many thanks,
Josh

Hi Vera, thanks for connecting us.

Chelsea, great to meet you. Any chance we can connect next week? I'm adding in my colleague Emily, as well. Essentially, our civics team offers these trainings to government partners across the USG (executive and legislative branch, in an non-partisan manner) and Gov entities across the world, so they can better use YouTube.

Happy to hop on the phone with you all to walk you through it, but most of our civics partners have found these trainings to be extremely beneficial so they can better use the platform. We recently hosted all US Senate Press Secretaries for a similar training in New York.

Looking forward to connecting.

Many thanks,
Josh

Thanks a ton for the connection, Vera! We will keep you in the loop.

Josh, pleasure to meet you. We're interested to know more about the training and what it entails. Do you have time for a quick chat tomorrow afternoon?

Thanks!

Chelsea,

Please meet Josh Blumenfeld with YouTube. Please connect to learn more about the training that YT offers globally for communications professionals.

Josh - pls meet Chelsea in our Latin America division who covers public affairs.

I'll let you guys set up a separate meeting - I don't need to be on it; just keep me in the loop, pls.

thanks! Vera
